Evidence-Driven Instructional Leadership—A Theory of Action

Mount Allison University
Sackville, NB

July 9-11, 2024

An Instructional Leadership Institute

Sponsored by:

New Brunswick Department of Education and Early Childhood Development

New Brunswick Teachers' Association

Prince Edward Island Teachers' Federation

Nova Scotia Teachers' Union

Public School Administration Association of Nova Scotia

Newfoundland and Labrador Teachers' Association

Our Facilitator

Justin Baeder, PhD is Director of The Principal Center, where he helps senior leaders in K-12 organizations build capacity for instructional leadership. A former principal in Seattle Public Schools, he is creator of the Instructional Leadership Challenge, which has helped more than 10,000 school leaders in 50 countries around the world:

- Confidently get into classrooms every day
- Have feedback conversations that change teacher practice
- Discover their best opportunities for school improvement

Dr. Baeder is the author of Now We're Talking! 21 Days to High-Performance Instructional Leadership, and the co-author, with Heather Bell-Williams, of Mapping Professional Practice: How to Develop Instructional Frameworks to Support Teacher Growth (Solution Tree).

He is the host of Principal Center Radio, a podcast featuring education thought leaders, and the founder of Repertoire, the professional writing app for instructional leaders.

He holds a PhD in Educational Leadership & Policy Studies from the University of Washington and an MEd in Curriculum & Instruction from Seattle University, and is a graduate of the Danforth Program for Educational Leadership at UW.

Audience

Intended for educational leaders from across Atlantic Canada who have interest in leadership. A limited number of participants will be accepted from each province.

Accommodations

DSS participants will be housed in Windsor Hall, a co-ed residence. Your rooms will be equipped with custom made furniture, mini fridges, microwaves and Smart TVs. All rooms are single occupancy and each bedroom is attached to either a private or semi-private washroom. A semi-private washroom is shared between two and is accessible from each bedroom, and lockable from both sides. The cost is $60 per night.

Meals

A meal plan is available which will include three meals on Wednesday, and breakfast and lunch on Thursday. There is a surf & turf banquet on Wednesday night which is included in your registration fee.

Meal Plan cost: $110 taxes in.

Individual meals may be purchased at the cafeteria door at set prices.

The Institute will sponsor a banquet on Thursday evening. This has always been an "Institute Highlight", an event you will certainly want to consider attending. There is no cost to Institute participants. Additional tickets may be available at the Institute at $65.00.

Recreational Facilities

The gymnasium and the pool at Mt. Allison will be available daily. There is exercise equipment in the residence and tennis courts and a golf course in the area.
